

CMC-Canada Hosts Management Consulting Week 2016 in Toronto

Toronto, October 11, 2016 – The Canadian Association of Management Consultants (CMC-Canada) is pleased to host Management Consulting Week, October 17-21 – a gathering of consulting leaders from over 20 countries.

Highlights of the week include:

- CMC-Global \(ICMCI\) Conference, the premier international event for all management consultants and their colleagues;
- The Annual Assembly of Delegates and Constantinus Dinner Awards, celebrating the very best in international consulting; and
- The Art of Leadership Conference, a great learning opportunity: attended by 1,500+ of Canada's most influential leaders.

This year's theme is focused on the disruption now shaping many industries and how it is affecting the consulting profession. Particular areas of focus include industry shifts and disruption, new engagement / experience models, consulting and youth, and much more. A terrific set of speakers has been assembled to drive home the message, including Alex Tapscott (Co-author, Blockchain Revolution), Nick Nanos (leading Canadian pollster), Sir Ken Robinson (internationally-acclaimed expert in creativity and innovation), Marshall Goldsmith (world-renowned leadership expert) as well as senior partners from KPMG, Deloitte, PwC, EY and other top global consultancies. The week will also include a presentation of CMC-Canada's 2016 Industry Study, which provides a comprehensive view of the consulting industry.
