

Certified Management Consultant (CMC) Designation Program Approved MBA and Continuing Education Stream

Below is detailed information for the CMC Program following the approved MBA and Continuing Education Stream. This stream is for candidates who have graduated from specific programs only at Royal Roads University, St. Mary's University, the University of Ottawa, the University of Waterloo, the University of Alberta, Queen's University, McGill University or George Brown College.

Step 1: Apply for CMC-Canada Membership

Completed Application Form:

- Completed application form and membership fees payment including signed adherence to the Uniform Code of Professional Conduct, leading to membership in applicable regional Institute.
- Annual Membership is $275 (plus tax) per year January to December (pro-rated based on the month in which you join).
- If you are currently enrolled in full-time studies at a Canadian University, you qualify for Student Membership (annual fee is $25 plus tax). However; if you are enrolled in one of our Academic Partner Programs, then student membership is free. If you are a recent graduate, you may qualify for a Young Professional Membership. Please ask for further details if this might apply to you.

Undergraduate Degree or Equivalent:

- Candidates must possess at least an undergraduate degree or equivalent (submit transcripts from approved university to ensure completion of required courses). Original transcripts are to be sent directly from the University to the CMC-Canada office.

Step 2: Application Review/Approval by the Provincial Institute

Your application will be reviewed by the appropriate Provincial Institute to confirm you are eligible for the CMC-Canada-approved MBA and Continuing Education Stream.

Step 3: Complete Required Courses

- Candidates who have completed the pre-approved programs receive exemptions from the Essentials of Management Consulting (EMC) course, the Ethical Behaviour course and exam, one course in the area of Project Management, and two courses in Interpersonal/Personal Skills (provided they have completed the approved courses at their respective universities – a list of these approved courses can be found at the end of this document).
- Queen's MBA applicants receive an exemption from taking the Proficiency in Project Management and Interpersonal/Personal Skills programs, provided that the Queen's MBA applicant meets the equivalency requirements (see page 4). Queen's MBA applicants must take CMC-Canada's EMC and Ethical Behaviour courses.

Step 4: Complete Oral Assessment

Note: Candidates MUST have at least three years full-time management consulting experience in order to proceed to this step.

Part One: Preparation Requirements

Two CMC Sponsors:

- Sponsors must be members in good standing of the Provincial Institute in which you are applying for membership. If you do not know any CMCs, CMC-Canada can assist you in finding sponsors.

Experience Declaration Form

- Signed declaration attesting to at least three years/1,200 hours a year in the business of management consulting including the immediate past 12 months. This declaration must be signed by one of the candidate's CMC sponsors. Declarations are submitted to the CMC-Canada office, which forwards them to the appropriate Institute for review.

Engagement Summaries

- All candidates must submit three engagement summaries of consulting projects in which they have been involved) during the past three (3) years, demonstrating 1,200 hours in management consulting per year, including one in the last twelve (12) months. All summaries must be reviewed and initialed by one of the candidate's CMC sponsors prior to submission to the CMC-Canada office, which forwards them to the appropriate Institute for review.

Note: The sponsors' role is to guide the candidate through the certification process. Client references are used by oral assessors to attest to a candidate's skills as a management consultant. A sponsor cannot act as a candidate reference when they have acted as sponsor for that same candidate.

Client References

- All candidates must ensure submission of three client references based on their engagement summaries, including one in the last twelve months (clients complete a questionnaire that independently verifies CMC candidates' consulting skill competency and adherence to ethical behaviour). Client references will be provided directly to CMC-Canada by the client

Client Deliverables

- All candidates will bring multiple copies of sample deliverables to their Oral Assessment, based on one engagement summary and the client reference for the same project. The deliverables will be submitted in hard copy at the oral assessment ONLY and the candidate will take the copies away at the end of the assessment. CMC-Canada and/or the assessors will not retain copies of the deliverables. Oral assessors will sign a confidentiality agreement prior to the assessment.

Part Two: Oral Assessment

- Register for the Oral Assessment. Cost for the assessment is $850 plus tax.
- Complete Oral Assessment with questions based on the competency framework and the candidate's engagement summaries, client references and deliverables for the same project.

Step 5: CMC Designation Granted by Certifying Institute

Membership is upgraded to CMC Member. Annual CMC fees are $625 plus tax.

Step 6: Maintain CMC Designation

- CMCs are required to track their Continuing Professional Development – 35 points per year. Tracking and reporting of points begins 12 months after earning the CMC designation.
- CMCs are required to keep their membership in good standing to maintain their CMC designation (pay annual fees - currently $625 plus tax)

If you have any questions, or would like more information about the CMC program, please contact Manager, Certification Administration, 416-860-1515/800-268-1148 ext: 212 or certification@cmc-canada.ca.
